

LOCAL NEWS.

THURSDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 9.

For this section slightly warmer, fair weather, variable winds, becoming southerly, warmer on Friday.

SONS OF CONFEDERATE VETERANS.—The Sons of Veterans held their regular monthly meeting last night, which was presided over by Capt. S. G. Brent.

The resignation of Mr. T. Madison Broadus as secretary was presented and accepted (he having removed from the city) and Comrade George Emon Warfield was elected to fill the vacancy.

Eighteen new applicants for membership, whose applications were reported favorably from the committee, were elected.

Capt. Brent announced the following appointments:

1st Sergeant, Urban S. Lambert; 2d do, Alfred Thompson; 3d do, Harry F. Charles; 4th do, Edgar Wardell, Jr.; Color Sergeant, Thos. L. Carter; 1st Corporal, Albert S. Marking; 2d do, F. Schwab, Jr.; 3d do, S. Lee Smith; 4th do, H. W. Coleman; Commissary Sergeant, E. L. Caskey.

A vote of thanks was extended to the ladies of the Fairfax Memorial Association for courtesies shown the Camp on its late visit.

THE COMTE DE PARIS.—The steamer George Leary, having on board the Comte de Paris and a party of about ten, stopped here yesterday evening as usual, on her way to Norfolk. A number of gentlemen had gathered on the wharf to see the stranger, but the Count kept his back turned towards them most of the time. He wore a seal colored light-weight overcoat, dark trousers and a dark hat, and was engaged in conversation with Col. Coppinger, who had charge of the party. The Count and party stood on the upper deck of the steamer until she got out of sight. Dr. C. F. Rauld, who taught the Count the use of signals in the army years ago, came down with the party as far as this city and then went back to Washington by the ferry. He received a most tender adieu from the Count and his party. Several newspaper correspondents were on the boat. The Count was on his way to Richmond, via Fortress Monroe.

COUNTY COURT.—Judge D. M. Chichester presiding.—Continuation of yesterday's proceedings.—Com. vs. Cassie Bowlin, colored, who had been found guilty of breaking into a dwelling and stealing, which verdict had been set aside, pleaded guilty of petit larceny and was sentenced to six months' imprisonment in jail.

Com. vs. John Johnson, alias Ben. Dudley, colored, indicted with Cassie Bowlin, for breaking and entering a house; not prosecuted.

S. W. Double, W. C. Donaldson and R. H. Phillips were appointed to view the way and ascertain the expediency of opening a road from Lewinsville to a point south of Walker Chapel.

George Cox was appointed a special policeman for Jefferson district.

Court adjourned till Court in course.

JUMPED FROM THE AQUEDUCT BRIDGE.—About 3 o'clock yesterday evening while the Virginia end of the Aqueduct bridge was deserted, a middle-aged white man suddenly threw his hat on the bridge floor, and climbing to the top of the rail leaped into the river below, a distance of 100 feet. In the meantime the bridge had become crowded with people, attracted by the cries of a man who was the only spectator to the tragedy, and who leaned over the side of the bridge watching for a glimpse of the body. Several boats immediately put off from the shore, but the search for the body was unsuccessful. The man's hat is now in the possession of the Washington police, and thus far, is the only thing by which they can hope to identify the body of the suicide.

PERSONAL.—Master Kenneth Baggett, lies quite ill of diphtheria at the residence of his grand-mother, Mrs. H. W. MacDonough.

Mr. C. J. Hammerley, for several years manager of the Singer Sewing Machine office in this city, has resigned to accept a position in Washington.

G. Powell Hall of Alexandria, who was in Roanoke some time ago prospecting, was so well pleased that he has written to a prominent real estate agency firm signifying his intention of locating at an early date. He will engage in a wholesale and manufacturing business.—Roanoke News.

Mr. Joe W. White, formerly of this city, is spoken of as a candidate for Alderman in Augusta, Ga.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was clear and cool with one prisoner and one lodged at the station house.

The Mayor this morning disposed of the following cases:

Georgeanna Day, colored, arrested by officer Hayes for being drunk and disorderly, was fined $1.50.

Silas Harris and Lizzy and Mamie Williams, colored, Frank Davidson, Wm. Smith and Sam Hunter, white, arrested by officers Pettis, Taylor and Howison for trespassing on the property of Messrs. C. C. Snoot & Co., just west of the city, were locked up for future examination.

MARRIED.—Mr. George W. Campbell, a prosperous young merchant of Vermont, was married at Greensboro, N. C., on the 30th ultimo, to Miss Mamie Howard, a beautiful young lady of Alexandria, Va. It is supposed that on account of some opposition, Mr. Campbell intended that this should be a strictly private affair, but it has in some way leaked out. Possibly the affectionate bearing of the couple toward each other could not be explained except upon the hypothesis of matrimony.—Lynchburg News.

SHOT HIS STEP-SON.—Near Raach's Spring in the county, yesterday, a man named Theo. Roth became enraged with his wife, a woman 70 years old, and assaulted her. Roth's step-son, Wm. Barnum, thereupon went to his mother's assistance, when Roth drew a pistol and shot him in the arm, inflicting a painful but not dangerous flesh wound. Roth was subsequently arrested and taken before Justice Drummond, who committed him to jail to await the action of the grand jury.

A FURTHER DELAY.—The Richmond & Danville people announce that owing to the delay in getting the equipment ready there will be a further postponement in putting on the Southwestern Limited, which was to have made its first run on Oct. 14th. It is thought, however, that everything will be in readiness and the train running by Nov. 15th.

A BAD PRACTICE.—A fine horse belonging to Messrs. Perry & Son died last night of lockjaw, caused by having stuck a nail in his foot. Several other horses in the city are now lame from the same cause, the result of careless people who, after opening boxes, &c., on the pavements, throw the nails in the street.
